

New Jersey Branch
International Dyslexia Association
Scholarship Application

NJIDA FALL CONFERENCE
October 18 & October 19, 2024

Mann Scholarship

To Honor Marcia Mann's commitment and dedication to children, a scholarship will be awarded Speech-Language Pathologist to an to attend the NJIDA Fall Conference.

Marcia Mann received a BA degree from NYU in Speech Pathology, and after a year of intensive study with Margaret Byrd Rawson, in the field of Language Based Learning Disabilities (Dyslexia), at Hood College, went on to Stanford University School of Medicine , where she was awarded an MA in Speech Pathology.

For over 40 years Ms. Mann has worked as a Speech-Language Pathologist, Orton-Gillingham Practitioner and Teacher Trainer. She has served as consultant to school districts and hospitals, and lectured extensively in the United States and internationally, and served on the faculty of several colleges and universities.

Currently in private practice in New Jersey, Ms. Mann is a former board member of the New York and South Carolina Branches of the International Dyslexia Association, a Founding Fellow and Trustee of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators, and a Certified Master Trainer for Orton Gillingham International.

Scholarship Criteria:

- Speech Language Pathologist
- Please submit 2 paragraphs, stating your current employment and why you would like to attend the NJIDA Fall Conference.